Things to See and Do

Tasmanian Devil Den

Say hello to some of our new friends from down under—Tasmanian devils! The Tasmanian Devil Den, located in the Emerson Children's Zoo, is one of the Zoo's newest exhibits. Tasmanian devils are the world's largest carnivorous marsupials (pouched animal) and well known for their intense vocalizations—an extremely loud screech. Come see Tasmanian devils on your next visit, and learn how the Zoo is helping to save them!

Emerson Zooline Railroad

All aboard! The Zooline Railroad offers a 20-minute narrated tour weaving through tunnels and past favorite animal exhibits. One of the Zoo's most popular attractions, the Zooline Railroad has transported more than 35 million visitors since 1963.

Animal Shows

First Bank Sea Lion Show*

Sea lion superstars show off their natural abilities in a show that is entertaining for the whole family.

Emerson Children's Zoo Show*

Be part of the fun with audience participation games, keeper chats and animal demonstrations.

*seasonal

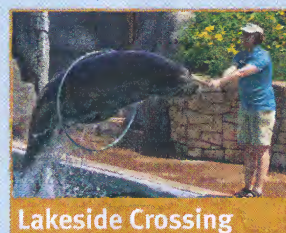

River's Edge

Visit our Asian elephant herd, laugh with a hyena or float along with the hippos in River's Edge.

Discovery Corner

Pet animals in the Children's Zoo, and watch butterflies flutter by at the Monsanto Insectarium in Discovery Corner.

Lakeside Crossing

Visit Sea Lion Sound, shop for souvenirs, grab a tasty meal or enjoy a sweet treat in Lakeside Crossing.

The Wild

See prairie dogs play, watch a chimpanzee swing from tree to tree and take a spin on the Conservation Carousel in The Wild.

Red Rocks

Watch a lion roam his territory, count a zebra's stripes, see a kangaroo hop about and a giraffe pick leaves from a tall tree in Red Rocks.

Historic Hill

Bird watch in the 1904 World's Fair Flight Cage, visit playful primates at the Primate House, or view reptiles and amphibians in the Herpetarium on Historic Hill.
